Setting the Compass

The purpose of our life is to:
Know God,
Love God,
and Serve God
so that we may live with Him forever
in Heaven

Leaders building Leaders
on the foundation of Christ

Stewardship of Leadership

we believe:

In one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; each of Whom is wholly present in the Other.

That God is the author of Sacred Scripture: Penned by human authors and inspired by the Holy Spirit, both Old and New Testaments firmly, faithfully and without error teach us the Truth, for the sake of our salvation, by which we are to lead our lives at home, in the workplace, and within our community.

That we are created in the image of God, and that we are separated from Him by Sin.

That Jesus Christ, true God and true man, is God's only begotten Son. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered and died for our sins, was resurrected from the dead, and ascended into Heaven.

In the forgiveness of our sins through Jesus Christ and that He will come again to judge all.

In the bodily resurrection of the dead and life everlasting; either united with Christ eternally in Heaven or eternally separated from Him in Hell.

Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

John 14:5-6

mission:

Leaders building leaders on the foundation of Christ.

vision:

By applying Biblical virtues through the intercession of the Holy Spirit, we will:

Build spiritual leaders in the HOME who shepherd their families to the Throne of Christ.

Build spiritual leaders in the WORKPLACE who model the Example of Christ.

Build spiritual leaders in the COMMUNITY who demonstrate the Integrity of Christ.

core values:

Love • Joy • Peace • Patience

Kindness • Generosity • Faithfulness

Gentleness • Self-Control

Galatians 5: 22 – 23

The spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him:

a spirit of wisdom and of understanding,

A spirit of counsel and of strength,

a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the LORD.

meeting format (steps 1 ~ 7 should be completed within 1 hour)

1. Opening Prayer – Volunteer needed to offer a spontaneous prayer.
2. Prayer's for: Unity, the intercession of the Holy Spirit, Litany of Humility and others are encouraged. (From the Stewardship of Leadership Prayer booklet and spontaneous)
3. Scripture Reading – Volunteer needed to read. All members are invited to write down all inspirations they receive from the Scripture reading on the provided worksheet.
4. 1–3 Minutes of Silence – A short period of quiet reflection is requested after the reading allowing the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and spirits to the reading.
5. Group Contribution – All members are invited to contribute what impacted them in this Scripture reading, sharing inspirations, personal stories and how they relate to their lives. During this time the book, DVD or CD of the month should also be included in the discussion.
6. Request for Prayer Requests/Intentions – All members are welcome to share prayer requests to be offered up by the group. Please feel free to write these down on the provided worksheet.
7. Closing Prayers
 - Volunteer needed to pray for the requests/intentions.
 - Prayers for a peaceful spirit (from the Stewardship of Leadership Prayer booklet)
 - Spontaneous Thanksgiving prayer for our time together
8. Break – A brief break could be taken before the short break-out session.
9. Group Accountability Session (Up to ½ hour) – The group could break out into groups of 3 to 4 if they choose, or remain as a group. This will be a time for each participant to delve into specific areas of self-growth related to the topic being discussed. Each participant is invited to document, on the provided worksheet, specific action items they plan to accomplish over the next week. These Action Items could be reviewed at the following week's break-out session.
10. Closing Prayer – Volunteer needed to offer a closing prayer.

week one reflection

Proverbs 8:10–21

Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.

[For Wisdom is better than corals, and no treasures can compare with her.]

I, Wisdom, dwell with prudence, and useful knowledge I have.

[The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil;]

Pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth I hate.

Mine are counsel and advice;
Mine is strength; I am understanding.

By me kings reign,
and rulers enact justice;
By me princes govern,
and nobles, all the judges of the earth.
Those who love me I also love,
and those who seek me find me.
With me are riches and honor, wealth that endures, and righteousness.
My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold,
and my yield than choice silver.
On the way of righteousness I walk, along the paths of justice,
Granting wealth to those who love me,
and filling their treasuries.

The Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God

suggested talking points

1. Do you seek Wisdom? If so, where, when, how and why do you do so?
2. Was there a time in your life when you placed a higher value on “silver” and “choice gold” over Wisdom and understanding? What were your priorities then? What are your priorities now?
3. What types of “wealth” fill the “treasuries” of those who embrace Wisdom?

Proverbs 16:17–23

The path of the upright leads away from misfortune;
those who attend to their way guard their lives.

Pride goes before disaster,
and a haughty spirit before a fall.

It is better to be humble with the poor than to share plunder with the proud.

Whoever ponders a matter will be successful;
happy the one who trusts in the LORD!

The wise of heart is esteemed for discernment,
and pleasing speech gains a reputation for learning.

Good sense is a fountain of life to those who have it,
but folly is the training of fools.

The heart of the wise makes for eloquent speech, and increases the learning on their lips.

The Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God

suggested talking points

1. Could you share examples of how pride caused adversity in your life?
2. What are the areas in your life where it is easier to discern and deliberate?
Are there certain times when it is harder than others?
3. What are the attributes of the “heart of the wise”?

Proverbs 24:1–9

Do not envy the wicked,
nor desire to be with them;
For their hearts plot violence,
and their lips speak of foul play.
By wisdom a house is built,
by understanding it is established;
And by knowledge its rooms are filled with every precious and pleasing possession.
The wise are more powerful than the strong,
and the learned, than the mighty,
For by strategy war is waged,
and victory depends on many counselors.
Wise words are beyond fools' reach,
in the assembly they do not open their mouth;
As they calculate how to do evil,
people brand them troublemakers.
The scheme of a fool gains no acceptance,
the scoffer is an abomination to the community.

The Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God

suggested talking points

1. What 'possessions' fill the rooms of a house built with wisdom?
2. Think of those in your life that you counsel? Would they say they are being led to "victory?" Why/why not?
3. Who are the wise people God placed in your life? What have you learned from them?

Proverbs 28:9–18

Those who turn their ears from hearing instruction, even their prayer is an abomination.
Those who mislead the upright into an evil way will themselves fall into their own pit, but the blameless will attain prosperity.
The rich are wise in their own eyes,
but the poor who are intelligent see through them.
When the just triumph, there is great glory;
but when the wicked prevail, people hide.
Those who conceal their sins do not prosper,
but those who confess and forsake them obtain mercy.

Happy those who always fear;
but those who harden their hearts fall into evil.
A roaring lion or a ravenous bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people.
The less prudent the rulers, the more oppressive their deeds.
Those who hate ill-gotten gain prolong their days.
Though a person burdened with blood guilt is in flight even to the grave,
let no one offer support.
Whoever walks blamelessly is safe,
but one whose ways are crooked falls into a pit.

Joshua 1:5–9, 24:31

No one can withstand you as long as you live. As I was with Moses, I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you. Be strong and steadfast, so that you may give this people possession of the land I swore to their ancestors that I would give them. Only be strong and steadfast, being careful to observe the entire law which Moses my servant enjoined on you. Do not swerve from it either to the right or to the left, that you may succeed wherever you go. Do not let this book of the law depart from your lips. Recite it by day and by night, that you may carefully observe all that is written in it; then you will attain your goal; then you will succeed. I command you: be strong and steadfast! Do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD, your God, is with you wherever you go.

Israel served the LORD during the entire lifetime of Joshua, and of those elders who outlived Joshua and who knew all the work the LORD had done for Israel.

2 Kings 6:13–23

He said, “Go, find out where he is, so that I may take him captive.”

Informed that Elisha was in Dothan, he sent there a strong force with horses and chariots. They arrived by night and encircled the city. Early the next morning, when the servant of the man of God arose and went out, he saw the force with its horses and chariots surrounding the city. “Alas!” he said to Elisha. “What shall we do, my lord?” Elisha answered, “Do not be afraid. Our side outnumbers theirs.” Then he prayed, “O LORD, open his eyes, that he may see.” And the LORD opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw that the mountainside was filled with fiery chariots and horses around Elisha.

When the Arameans came down to get him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, “Strike this people blind, I pray you.” And the LORD struck them blind, according to Elisha’s word. Then Elisha said to them: “This is the wrong road, and this is the wrong city. Follow me! I will take you to the man you want.” And he led them to Samaria. When they entered Samaria, Elisha prayed, “O LORD, open their eyes that they may see.” The LORD opened their eyes, and they saw that they were inside Samaria. When the king of Israel saw them, he asked, “Shall I kill them, my father? Shall I kill them?” Elisha replied, “You must not kill them. Do you slay those whom you have taken captive with your sword or bow? Serve them a meal. Let them eat and drink, and then go back to their master.” The king spread a great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went back to their master. No more Aramean raiders came into the land of Israel.

1 Peter 5:1–7

So I exhort the presbyters among you, as a fellow presbyter and witness to the sufferings of Christ and one who has a share in the glory to be revealed. Tend the flock of God in your midst, [overseeing] not by constraint but willingly, as God would have it, not for shameful profit but eagerly. Do not lord it over those assigned to you, but be examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

Likewise, you younger members, be subject to the presbyters. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for:

“God opposes the proud

but bestows favor on the humble.”

So humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your worries upon him because he cares for you.

2 Samuel 23:1–7

These are the last words of David:

The oracle of David, son of Jesse;
the oracle of the man God raised up,
Anointed of the God of Jacob, favorite of the Mighty One of Israel.
The spirit of the LORD spoke through me;
his word was on my tongue.
The God of Israel spoke;
of me the Rock of Israel said,
“One who rules over humankind with justice,
who rules in the fear of God,
Is like the light at sunrise
on a cloudless morning, making the land’s vegetation glisten after the rain.”
Is not my house firm before God?
He has made an eternal covenant with me,
set forth in detail and secured.
Will he not bring to fruition
all my salvation and my every desire?
But the wicked are all like thorns to be cast away;
they cannot be taken up by hand.
One wishing to touch them must be armed with iron or the shaft of a spear.
They must be utterly consumed by fire.

Joshua 24:14–15, 19–24

“Now, therefore, fear the LORD and serve him completely and sincerely. Cast out the gods your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. If it is displeasing to you to serve the LORD, choose today whom you will serve, the gods your ancestors served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD.”

Joshua in turn said to the people, “You may not be able to serve the LORD, for he is a holy God; he is a passionate God who will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. If you forsake the LORD and serve strange gods, he will then do evil to you and destroy you, after having done you good.”

But the people answered Joshua, “No! We will serve the LORD.” Joshua therefore said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD.” They replied, “We are witnesses!” “Now, therefore, put away the foreign gods that are among you and turn your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.” Then the people promised Joshua, “We will serve the LORD, our God, and listen to his voice.”

Matthew 5:1–12

When he saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

The Beatitudes

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Who we Are

Stewardship: A Mission of Faith is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that was founded in 2010, with the mission to be an instrument of unity in the one body of Christ by feeding the hungry hearts of God's children.

We started with producing and distributing booklets and posters at no charge to churches throughout the United States. These resources were created to spread the Gospel message of stewardship which is: everything we have is a gift from God that we are to use to help others.

Today, Stewardship: A Mission of Faith is a family of ministries with a global reach, planting seeds of faith around the world through the ministries of Down To Earth, The Fathers of St. Joseph, Integrity Restored, and Spirit Power, as well as continuing to serve in our initial mission initiatives.

Who and How We Serve

The answer is simple—everyone and in multiple ways! Because we are a “family” of ministries, we are able to plant the seeds of faith in many ways. Whether someone is beginning their faith journey or further down the path, we are able to offer a multitude of resources: books, booklets, Bibles, rosaries, audio CDs, DVD series, speaker presentations, and many other tools and initiatives. Our offerings are targeted to serve:

Teens, Young Adults, Adults, Parents, Educators, Parishes/Churches, Men's & Women's Groups, Engaged & Married Couples, Clergy, Lay Leaders, Youth Ministries, Dioceses, Apostolates and Business Leaders

We invite you to join our mission, through your prayers and financial support. Visit our website today at StewardshipMission.org
