The purpose of our life is to:
Know God,
Love God,
and Serve God
so that we may live with Him forever
in Heaven

Leaders building Leaders
on the foundation of Christ

Stewardship of Leadership

we believe:

In one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; each of Whom is wholly present in the Other.

That God is the author of Sacred Scripture: Penned by human authors and inspired by the Holy Spirit, both Old and New Testaments firmly, faithfully and without error teach us the Truth, for the sake of our salvation, by which we are to lead our lives at home, in the workplace, and within our community.

That we are created in the image of God, and that we are separated from Him by Sin.

That Jesus Christ, true God and true man, is God's only begotten Son. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered and died for our sins, was resurrected from the dead, and ascended into Heaven.

In the forgiveness of our sins through Jesus Christ and that He will come again to judge all.

In the bodily resurrection of the dead and life everlasting; either united with Christ eternally in Heaven or eternally separated from Him in Hell.

Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

John 14:5-6

mission:

Leaders building leaders on the foundation of Christ.

vision:

By applying Biblical virtues through the intercession of the Holy Spirit, we will:

Build spiritual leaders in the HOME who shepherd their families to the Throne of Christ.

Build spiritual leaders in the COMMUNITY who demonstrate the Integrity of Christ.

core values:

Love • Joy • Peace • Patience

Kindness • Generosity • Faithfulness

Gentleness • Self-Control

Galatians 5: 22 – 23

The spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him:

a spirit of wisdom and of understanding,

A spirit of counsel and of strength,

a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the LORD.

week one reflection

Ephesians 5:1–14

So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma. Immorality or any impurity or greed must not even be mentioned among you, as is fitting among holy ones, no obscenity or silly or suggestive talk, which is out of place, but instead, thanksgiving. Be sure of this, that no immoral or impure or greedy person, that is, an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Let no one deceive you with empty arguments, for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the disobedient. So do not be associated with them. For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says:

“Awake, O sleeper,
and arise from the dead,
and Christ will give you light.”

suggested talking points

1. How do or could you imitate the Light of Christ in your daily life; at home, at work and in your community? Be specific.
2. Who are the “children of light” in your life? How have they shaped you? How have you shaped them?
3. Was there a time in your life when you walked through the ‘darkness’? What brought you to the ‘light’?

Isaiah 30:18–21

Truly, the LORD is waiting to be gracious to you,
truly, he shall rise to show you mercy;
For the LORD is God of justice:
happy are all who wait for him!
Yes, people of Zion, dwelling in Jerusalem,
you shall no longer weep;
He will be most gracious to you when you cry out;
as soon as he hears he will answer you.
The LORD will give you bread in adversity and water in affliction.
No longer will your Teacher hide himself,
but with your own eyes you shall see your Teacher,
And your ears shall hear a word behind you:
“This is the way; walk in it,”
when you would turn to the right or the left.

week three reflection

Matthew 18:15–20

“If your brother sins [against you], go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that ‘every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.’ If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, [amen,] I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

3. Could you give examples of times when “two or three (were) gathered together” in His name and He reveled Himself in your midst?

Psalm 23 (A psalm of David)

I

The LORD is my shepherd;
there is nothing I lack.
In green pastures he makes me lie down;
to still waters he leads me;
he restores my soul.
He guides me along right paths
for the sake of his name.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff comfort me.

II

You set a table before me
in front of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Indeed, goodness and mercy will pursue me
all the days of my life;
I will dwell in the house of the LORD for endless days.

The Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God

Stewardship of Leadership: monthly review

book-of-the-month: QBQ! The Question Behind the Question by John G. Miller reflection

“That moment of frustration also presents us with a tremendous opportunity to contribute, and the QBQ can help us take advantage of it. This, in a nutshell, is the essence of the QBQ: Making better choices in the moment by asking better questions.” (page 11)

1. Mr. Miller writes: “The idea that we are accountable for our own choices and are free to make better ones is fundamental to the QBQ. Sometimes people think they have no choice. But we always have a choice. Even deciding not to choose is making a choice. Realizing this and taking responsibility for our choices is a big step toward making great things happen in our lives.” (pages 15 – 16)

In what specific areas of your life could you make better choices? How will you begin to do so?

2. Mr. Miller notes on page 18: “Here are the three simple guidelines for creating a QBQ:
  - A. Begin with “What” or “How” (not “Why,” “When,” or “Who”).
  - B. Contain an “I” (not “they,” “them,” “we,” or “you”).
  - C. Focus on action.”

What positive changes could this advice help create at your home, work and community?

3. Mr. Miller observes on page 80: “No public figure is a role model for our kids. That’s our job – yours and mine. It’s a humbling realization at times, but it’s the truth. No matter what our role, someone is watching and emulating our behavior.

Modeling is the most powerful of all teachers.”

What character traits are you modeling to your family, co-workers and community in both good and difficult times?

Ephesians 2:1–10

You were dead in your transgressions and sins in which you once lived following the age of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the desires of our flesh, following the wishes of the flesh and the impulses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like the rest. But God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ (by grace you have been saved), raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Isaiah 35:4–10

Say to the fearful of heart:

Be strong, do not fear!

Here is your God,

he comes with vindication;

With divine recompense

he comes to save you.

Then the eyes of the blind shall see,

and the ears of the deaf be opened;

Then the lame shall leap like a stag,

and the mute tongue sing for joy.

For waters will burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the Arabah.

The burning sands will become pools,

and the thirsty ground, springs of water;

The abode where jackals crouch will be a marsh for the reed and papyrus.

A highway will be there,

called the holy way;

No one unclean may pass over it,

but it will be for his people;

no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray on it.

No lion shall be there,

nor any beast of prey approach,

nor be found.

But there the redeemed shall walk,

And the ransomed of the LORD shall return,

and enter Zion singing,

crowned with everlasting joy;

They meet with joy and gladness, sorrow and mourning flee away.

Psalm 26:1– 12

of David

I

Judge me, LORD!

For I have walked in my integrity.

In the LORD I trust;

I do not falter.

Examine me, Lord, and test me;

search my heart and mind.

Your mercy is before my eyes;

I walk guided by your faithfulness.

II

I do not sit with worthless men,

nor with hypocrites do I mingle.

I hate an evil assembly;

with the wicked I do not sit.

I will wash my hands in innocence

so that I may process around your altar, Lord,

To hear the sound of thanksgiving,

and recount all your wondrous deeds.

Lord, I love the refuge of your house,

the site of the dwelling-place of your glory.

III

Do not take me away with sinners,

nor my life with the men of blood,

In whose hands there is a plot,

their right hands full of bribery.

But I walk in my integrity;

redeem me, be gracious to me!

My foot stands on level ground;

in assemblies I will bless the LORD.

2 Timothy 1:6–14

For this reason, I remind you to stir into flame the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands. For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control. So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake; but bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.

He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, for which I was appointed preacher and apostle and teacher. On this account I am suffering these things; but I am not ashamed, for I know him in whom I have believed and am confident that he is able to guard what has been entrusted to me until that day. Take as your norm the sound words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard this rich trust with the help of the holy Spirit that dwells within us.

We live in a world where relationships are, at times, under attack, devalued, and taken for granted. What have you learned from this DVD? How could you strengthen your relationships, in particular with your spouse and other loved ones, after contemplating the significance of this movie?

Proverbs 13:14–20

The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life, turning one from the snares of death.

Good sense brings favor,
but the way of the faithless is their ruin.

The shrewd always act prudently
but the foolish parade folly.

A wicked messenger brings on disaster,
but a trustworthy envoy is a healing remedy.

Poverty and shame befall those who let go of discipline,
but those who hold on to reproof receive honor.

Desire fulfilled delights the soul,

Walk with the wise and you become wise,

week three reflection

Acts 4:7–20

They brought them into their presence and questioned them, “By what power or by what name have you done this?” Then Peter, filled with the holy Spirit, answered them, “Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is ‘the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.’ There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.”

Observing the boldness of Peter and John and perceiving them to be uneducated, ordinary men, they were amazed, and they recognized them as the companions of Jesus. Then when they saw the man who had been cured standing there with them, they could say nothing in reply. So they ordered them to leave the Sanhedrin, and conferred with one another, saying, “What are we to do with these men? Everyone living in Jerusalem knows that a remarkable sign was done through them, and we cannot deny it. But so that it may not be spread any further among the people, let us give them a stern warning never again to speak to anyone in this name.”

So they called them back and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. Peter and John, however, said to them in reply, “Whether it is right in the sight of God for us to obey you rather than God, you be the judges. It is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard.”

and on the day of salvation I helped you.”

Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We cause no one to stumble in anything, in order that no fault may be found with our ministry; on the contrary, in everything we commend ourselves as ministers of God, through much endurance, in afflictions, hardships, constraints, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, vigils, fasts; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, in a holy spirit, in unfeigned love, in truthful speech, in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness at the right and at the left; through glory and dishonor, insult and praise. We are treated as deceivers and yet are truthful; as unrecognized and yet acknowledged; as dying and behold we live; as chastised and yet not put to death; as sorrowful yet always rejoicing; as poor yet enriching many; as having nothing and yet possessing all things.

We have spoken frankly to you, Corinthians; our heart is open wide. You are not constrained by us; you are constrained by your own affections. As recompense in kind (I speak as to my children), be open yourselves.

suggested talking points

1. How, in the midst of “afflictions, hardships (and) constraints,” are you able to maintain your faithful conviction?
2. How do you project “purity, knowledge, patience (and) kindness, in a holy spirit” to those around you?
3. Would those in your care say you speak “frankly” with your “heart open wide” in your day to day interactions with them at home, at work and within your community? Why or why not?

Stewardship of Leadership: monthly review

monthly topic: Influence and Impact

Book-of-the-month: The Holy Bible—Books of Samuel (1 and 2)

Reflection:

The Books of Samuel (1 and 2) detail the development and progression of kingship in Israel. These two Books include the stories of: Eli, Samuel, Saul and David; strong and influential leaders of the Old Testament.

As you read through the stories of Eli, Samuel, Saul and David ponder their spiritual lives, their approach to leadership, their successes and failures. Reflect upon their toughness and tenderness, their maturity and shortcomings.

What can you learn from each of them?

A Family of Ministries with a Global Reach, Planting Seeds of Faith Around the World.

Who we Are

Stewardship: A Mission of Faith is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that was founded in 2010, with the mission to be an instrument of unity in the one body of Christ by feeding the hungry hearts of God's children.

We started with producing and distributing booklets and posters at no charge to churches throughout the United States. These resources were created to spread the Gospel message of stewardship which is: everything we have is a gift from God that we are to use to help others.

Today, Stewardship: A Mission of Faith is a family of ministries with a global reach, planting seeds of faith around the world through the ministries of Down To Earth, The Fathers of St. Joseph, Integrity Restored and Spirit Power, as well as continuing to serve in our initial mission initiatives.
